

FRASERBURGH FOOTBALL CLUB

CODE OF CONDUCT

Rev 1
20th July 2010

Code of Conduct

- The club will act at all times in an open and communicative manner, except where there are issues of commercial sensitivity or individual privacy.
- Fraserburgh Football Club will not tolerate racism, sectarianism, bigotry or any other forms of discrimination in its business or activities. The club reserves the right to pursue criminal charges against those supporters who engage in such activities at matches.
- The club will act at all times as an equal opportunities employer.
- Fraserburgh Football Club will work closely with partners in local and national government to achieve its aims.
- Fraserburgh Football Club will develop and maintain a close working relationship with associated voluntary organisations in the community.
- All members of staff and volunteers will take part in equal opportunities training to ensure equality of access to services.
- Fraserburgh Football Club supports the principles in the United Nations 'Rights of the Child' charter.
- Fraserburgh Football Club staff and volunteers will at all times conduct themselves in a manner which reflects well on the club.
- The club will work closely with local and national business for mutual support and benefit.